J. Clarence Bullock, 64 years of age, died at his home Monday evening, April 3, after a long illness. For a year he had been unable to work but had not been seriously ill until about two months ago, when he was confined to his chair, not able to lie down. The day before his death he had a shock and took to his bed and was unconscious to the end. Mr. Bullock was born in Readsboro, January 2, 1852 and with the exception of a few years spent in Hartford and No. Adams he had lived here all his life and was a master mechanic. He married Miss Mary Stiner of North Adams in that city about 35 years ago. The funeral was at the house Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and the body was taken to North Adams and placed in the vault until burial later. The only survivors are his wife, sister Mrs. Harriett Ingalls and brother, D. M. Bullock. Out of town people who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitney, Ervin Curtis and David Post, all of North Adams.

Could Hardly Do Her Work.

Housework is trying on health and strength. Women are as much inclined to kidney and bladder trouble as men. Symptoms of aching back, stiff and sore joints and muscles, blurred vision, puffiness under eyes, should be given prompt attention before they lead to chronic or more serious ailment. Mrs. George Hauck, 255 Pearl St., Benton Harbor, Mich., writes: "I was awful bad, with such pain I could hardly do my work, and I am very thankful for Foley Kidney Pills."
